FOREWORD

We, the Gems Staff, are proud to present to you our "Gems of 1954." This book has caught glimpses of School Life here at Rockcreek Center. To you, who have attended this school and have graduated, we hope it will bring back pleasant memories.

We have tried to expand our Annual this year and want to thank our advertisers and everyone who helped to make this expansion possible.

Now, turn the page and see what goes on in Rockcreek Center High School. It will bring smiles, sorrows, chuckles, and dreams to you.

THE STAFF.

roaming father. Now she returns to visit their ancestral home which she has never seen. She brings Half Pint, her pet monkey with her. MMiss Deborah is shocked and refuses to have "that animal" in the house. But Penny isn't like Laura and Alice! She calls Miss Deborah's bluff and Half Pint stays.

Spade, Mable (Sheets), 328 S. Jersey, Bluffton, Ind.
Wolfcale, James, (Deceased)

Thanks to the many gracious and cooperative business firms of our Community who have placed ads in this edition of Gems of 1954.

The staff of this book and the students of Rockcreek Center High School wish to express their sincere appreciation to those establishments which have helped to make this expanded yearbook possible.

Sincerely,

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Don' worry . . . it's us . . . the Annual Staff. We're just relaxing. It's been a long old road—full of dummies, copy sheets, and deadlines.

Now its done! We hope that you like it.
